

Ski Resort Overnight Camping

Catch First Chair With Ease

LOOKOUT PASS

I-90 Exit 0, Mullan, ID 83846

(208)744-1301

Visit Website

Lookout Pass welcomes a stay in their lower lot. No facilities or hook-ups.

SUMMIT AT SNOQUALMIE

WA-906

Snoqualmie Pass, WA 98068

(425) 434-7669

Visit Website

Spaces are available at Alpental and Summit Central, three night limit, and cost $15 for the first night with additional nights only $10.

To register check in with security and CASH ONLY. No hook-ups.

CRYSTAL MOUNTAIN

Washington 98022

360-663-2265

Visit Website

Crystal Mountain has one of the more robust overnight camping areas. They are all, first-come, first-serve, but they have over 65 spots. They have 50 and 30 amp electrical hookups.

This place gets hopping and is a fun atmosphere where you can meet fellow ski bums. There is a 14-day limit and a spot will cost you a steep $40 but the atmosphere is worth it.

If you're lucky, you can skip the alarm, you'll be awake once they start blasting for avalanches.

BRIDGER BOWL

15795 Bridger Canyon Rd

Bozeman, MT 59715

(406) 587-2111

Visit Website

Bridger Bowl is happy to let you stay overnight in a self-contained camper. Check in with resort staff to find out where overnight parking is allowed.

LOST TRAIL POWDER MOUNTAIN

9485 US-93

Sula, MT 59871

(406) 821-3211

Visit Website

While Lost Trail doesn't have an official overnight stay policy, they tend to look the other way. Check in with staff and they will direct you to the correct parking area.

MT. HOOD MEADOWS

14040 OR-35

Mt Hood, OR 97041

(360) 571-3919

Visit Website

Mt. Hood has 14-spots available for overnight stays. No hook-ups and self-contained campers only. A Snow Park permit( $5/day, $25/annual) is required and can be purchased at guest services.

Maximum of 3-nights stay in any 5-day period. During heavy snowfall they will ask you to move so they can plow your area.

BRUNDAGE MOUNTAIN RESORT

3890 Goose Lake Rd

McCall, ID 83638

(208) 634-4151

Visit Website

I may be a little biased as this is my home-town hill, but if you want small town charm topped off with the best snow in Idaho, Brundage is the spot.

The lower lot is open to overnight camping and costs $10. Check with guest services to get a pass. No hook-ups and during busy holidays they may not have spots available.

HOODOO SKI AREA

NF-2690

Sisters, OR 97759

(541) 822-3799

Visit Website

Hoodoo offers a plethora of overnight camping options. From car camping to full hookups they've got you covered. Prices start at $10, electrical hook-ups available, and they have bathrooms with showers.

Call (541) 822-3799 for reservations or further details.

MT. BACHELOR RESORT

13000 SW Century Dr

Bend, OR 97702

(541) 382-1709

Visit Website

Electrical hook-ups available for $50/night and $70/night during peak season. For no hook-ups your looking at $20/night.

Peak season:

- December 26, 2018 through January 5, 2019
- January 18-20, 2019
- February 15-23, 2019
- March 22-30, 2019
- May 24-27, 2019

GRAND TARGHEE RESORT

3300 E Alta Ski Hill Rd

Moose, WY 83012

(800) 827-4433

Visit Website

Another favorite hill of mine that welcomes overnight stays.

RV parking is designated in Lot #4 in the Moose and Wolf rows, and there is a maximum stay of seven consecutive nights.

Permits available at the lodging front desk and will run you $28. No hook-ups.

BOGUS BASIN

2600 N Bogus Basin Road

Boise, Idaho 83702

(208) 332-5100

Visit Website

Bogus Basin welcomes overnight campers in all lots except their main lot. No hook-ups but to stay is free. They just ask that you park beyond the tubing hill.

WILLAMETTE PASS RESORT

OR-58

Crescent, OR 97733

(541) 345-7669

Visit Website

Willamette Pass has 10-spots with electrical hook-ups for $20. Additional spots available without hook-ups for $10.

Parking locations may vary so check with parking attendants before parking.

POMERELLE MOUNTAIN RESORT

961 E Howell Canyon Rd

Malta, ID 83342

(208) 673-5599

Visit Website

Pomerelle offers overnight RV and van camping as long as you're self-contained.

POWDERHORN MOUNTAIN RESORT

48338 Powderhorn Rd

Mesa, CO 81643

(970) 268-5700

Visit Website

Powderhorn welcomes overnight campers. They only ask that on weekends you use the overflow parking lots.

WOLF CREEK RESORT

US-160

Pagosa Springs, CO 81147

(970) 264-5639

Visit Website

Overnight camping at Wolf Creek is the norm here and you'll likely be joined by several others. Check in with the parking attendants to ask where they would like you to park. It's free but no hook-ups.

PURGATORY RESORT

1 Skier Pl, Durango, CO 81301

(970)247-9000

Visit Website

Purgatory Resort doesn't have an official overnight camping policy but I can assure you they are very welcome to it. Just pick a spot out of the way so you don't interfere with the morning plows.
